WOULD NOT HEAR MORMONS

Proselyting Speeches Drowned by Din of Many Dishpans.

Kamrar, Ia., August 31.—Two elders of the Mormon Church left this city afoot to-day, with the din of many dishpans echoing in their ears.

The elders were making proselyting speeches last night when a crowd of women, beating vigorously on kitchen tinware, created such pandemonium that the speakers could not be heard.

Mormon sympathizers sought to repel the assault of noise by throwing water on the women, but at this point husbands and brothers took a hand, and after lively disticutes the meeting was broken up.

A few members of the dishpan brigade were out again to-day beating quick-step time to the departure of the missionaries.
